Calling All Young Men

Join us at the
UNCF and GMS Event Hosted by UCLA

Saturday, October 19, 2013 at 9:00am
University of California, Los Angeles

The UNCF’s Gates Millennium Scholars (GMS) Program is funded by a $1.6 billion grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. GMS annually provides 1,000 eligible students with good-through-graduation undergraduate scholarships.

This event will feature:
- Workshops for parents/guardians and students on college readiness, creating competitive scholarship applications and understanding financial aid;
- A celebrity panel discussion;
- And a tour of UCLA’s campus!

8th - 12th graders who are on track to be eligible to apply to GMS:
- Are African American, American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian Pacific Islander American and Hispanic American; and
- Are 10th graders who have attained a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or above, 11th graders who have attained a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above, and 12th graders who have attained a cumulative GPA of 3.3 or above all on a 4.0 unweighted scale, or have earned a GED.
