Educator’s Institute – High School
Our goal is to provide you with the necessary information to assist your students in making an informed decision as they embark on their educational careers. We are committed to being a resource for you, your students, and their families.

CSUDH Admissions Update
California State University, Dominguez Hills, is committed to access and will continue admitting first year students under the non-impaction guidelines. To be considered for admissions to CSUDH, all applicants must meet the minimum CSU eligibility requirements. Below are the admissions requirements for any First-Time, First-Year applicant who has earned no college credit following high school graduation. Students who meet the following requirements will be considered admissible for Fall 2021.

GPA Requirements
Students must receive a minimum GPA of 2.5 or higher for California residents (3.0 for non-California residents)

A-G Requirements
Students must complete all A-G college preparatory coursework with grades of C- or better. For Fall 2021 applicants, A-G coursework with a Pass/Credit taken during Winter/Spring/Summer 2020 will be considered to fulfill A-G requirements.

Graduation Requirement
Students must graduate from high school or equivalent

Multi-Factor Admissions Requirement
California State University, Dominguez Hills (CSUDH), has implemented a new multi-factor admissions review process for Fall 2021 to evaluate First-Time, First-Year applicants whose GPA fall between 2.0 – 2.49. Below is a list of the supplemental factors CSUDH will use to evaluate students with an A-G GPA between 2.0 – 2.49 with the most significant weight/consideration given to GPA:

- Additional A-G coursework and GPA
- Educational Partnership Programs
- Service Area High Schools
- First Generation
- Household Income
- Foster Youth
- Extracurricular Involvement
- Institutional Commitment Faculty Partnerships
- Employment (5 hours or more a week)
